

Senate Bill Number FA18 SB002

A Bill to Amend the ASLC Constitution

Be it enacted by the Senate of the Associated Students of Lewis & Clark here assembled that:

Section 1: Amend Article VIII - Financial Holdings to read:

1. Purpose
 - a. This section contains the details and guidelines for the maintenance, allocation, and expenditure of ASLC-controlled financial holdings.
2. Authority of Funds
 - a. The 4300 Account is comprised of Student Body Fee money allocated by the Student Organizations Committee left unused by student organizations at the end of the previous academic year and rolls over each year.
 - b. The 4300 Account shall only be accessible by the Student Organizations Committee for the appeals and new club funding in accordance with their bylaws at their discretion.
 - c. The committee shall not access more than 40% of the money in the account until after the approval of allocations of club funds for the upcoming academic year.
 - i. The amount to be accessed shall be provided to the Student Organizations Coordinator by the ASLC Treasurer in coordination with Student Activities and the Business Office.
3. Emergency Use of The 4300 Account
 - a. The entirety of The 4300 Account may be made freely accessible to the Student Senate under limited emergency situations, including:
 - i. Under-enrollment of students within the College of Arts & Sciences resulting in an over-allocation of Student Body Fee money by the Student Organizations Committee
 - ii. A budget deficit within the ASLC Operations Account resulting in an inability to pay stipended positions as specified by the Constitution
 - iii. An inability on the part of the College to pay for a vital service as expressed by the CAS Student Body through a survey conducted by the ASLC Auditor
 1. If results indicate a majority support for an issue, Senate will discuss solutions to the issue including accessing the 4300 Account in accordance with this article.
 - iv. Emergency expenditure of funds may be allocated with a three-fourth ($\frac{3}{4}$) majority within the Senate

Senate Bill Number FA18 SB002
A Bill to Amend the ASLC Constitution

- v. Extenuating circumstances not listed above in which a nine-tenths (9/10) super-majority can be reached within the Senate may warrant an emergency expenditure of funds
- b. Upon emergency expenditure of any amount within The 4300 Account, an internal review encompassing the entirety of ASLC shall occur in order to prevent similar errors from occurring in the future
 - i. This internal review shall be conducted by the ASLC Auditor, with assistance from the ASLC Treasurer
 - ii. At the conclusion of the review process, a report summarizing the events that occurred, including the actions of institutional bodies and ASLC, shall be uploaded to the ASLC website by the ASLC Auditor and circulated to all students in the College of Arts & Sciences by the ASLC President

Section 2: This bill shall take effect immediately.
