6 The Associated Students of Lewis & Clark

7 Amended: November 2nd, 2018

8
9 Article I - Purpose and Scope

- 10 1. The Student Organizations Committee (hereafter: SOC) is established to allocate student 11 fee money to student groups and provide guidance and advice pertaining to responsible 12 and accountable spending practices,
- 13 2. The SOC shall annually review the budget of each student group and disperse student fee
14 money amongst these groups with fairness and integrity for the benefit of the Lewis & 15 Clark Community,
- 16 3. SOC is responsible for ensuring that each student group adheres to the budgeting criteria 17 outlined within these Bylaws and that budgeting decisions are made with fairness and 18 integrity,
- 19 4. SOC shall budget all student groups individually,
- 20 a. Excepting any board comprised of subsidiary student groups, which shall receive 21 one lump sum, which it may then distribute freely to its constituent groups,
- 22 5. These bylaws cannot be construed to contain any implied rules, powers, or abilities not 23 explicitly stated,
- 24

2           a contingency fund,
3       5. Allocations
4           a. The allocation process shall take place on a precise date to be set by the 5           Coordinator,
6           b. Allocations take place in a closed-meeting process,
7           c. The SOC shall review each budget request individually, 8           d. The SOC shall review whether each organization has constructed a realistic and 9           reasonable budget application,
10                  i. Priority of consideration within an application is given to budget items 11                  that are essential and necessary to each organization, 12                  ii. SOC shall have the discretion to allocate funding to the most realistic and 13                  reasonable items within each organization's proposed budget,
14                  iii. SOC reserves the right to make allocations decisions based upon available 15                  funds and demand for said funds to ensure the greatest possible equity,
16           e. Organizations that submit late, improperly formatted, or incomplete applications
17           may be ineligible for SOC funding,
18

19 Article VI- Budget Approval

- 20       1. Upon completion of the budget following the allocations process, the budget passes to the 21       ALSC Senate for approval,
22           a. The ASLC Senate shall have the opportunity to inquire about specific contents 23           and decisions within the proposed budget,
24           b. Budget approval requires a simple majority vote (2/3), 25       2. Upon approval by the ASLC Senate, budgeted funds shall be distributed at the start of the 26       following academic year,
27       3. Upon rejection by the ASLC Senate, the budget shall return to SOC to be reexamined by 28       the committee,
29           a. After reexamination has taken place, SOC must re-submit the budget to the ASLC
30       Senate for approval,
31

32 Article VII - Appeals

- 33       1. Appeals shall take place during the fall and/or spring semesters, 34           a. The Coordinator reserves the right to not hold appeals during the fall or spring, 35       2. Any student organization formed prior to the preceding allocation process may appeal for 36       additional funds,
37       3. The Coordinator shall set a date for the appeals process at their discretion,
38       4. Mandatory consultation on Appeals Applications
